

BOOK I

GROUP 1:

SERAFINA, JAMAICA BELTRAN

SY, JOHN KENNETH

E D C B

CHAPTERS: 1- 8 & 10, 11

HAPPINESS

A

KEYPOINTS

- Highest good
- Some think that happiness is to be found in pleasure, in honor, or in contemplation.
- Happiness
- Choice

CHAPTERS: 9, 12 & 13

VIRTUES

E

D

C

B

A

KEYPOINTS

- Aristotle says that happiness is the result of virtue and “some sort of learning or cultivation”.
- Happiness is the principle of actions and the cause of all good things.
- The virtue we must study is human virtue.
- Happiness is an activity of the soul in accord with complete virtue; it is needed to examine human virtue.

• Rational Part = Virtues of Thought

Irrational Part = Virtues of Character

D

C

B

A

INDIVIDUAL WORK

KENNETH

JAMAICA

E

D

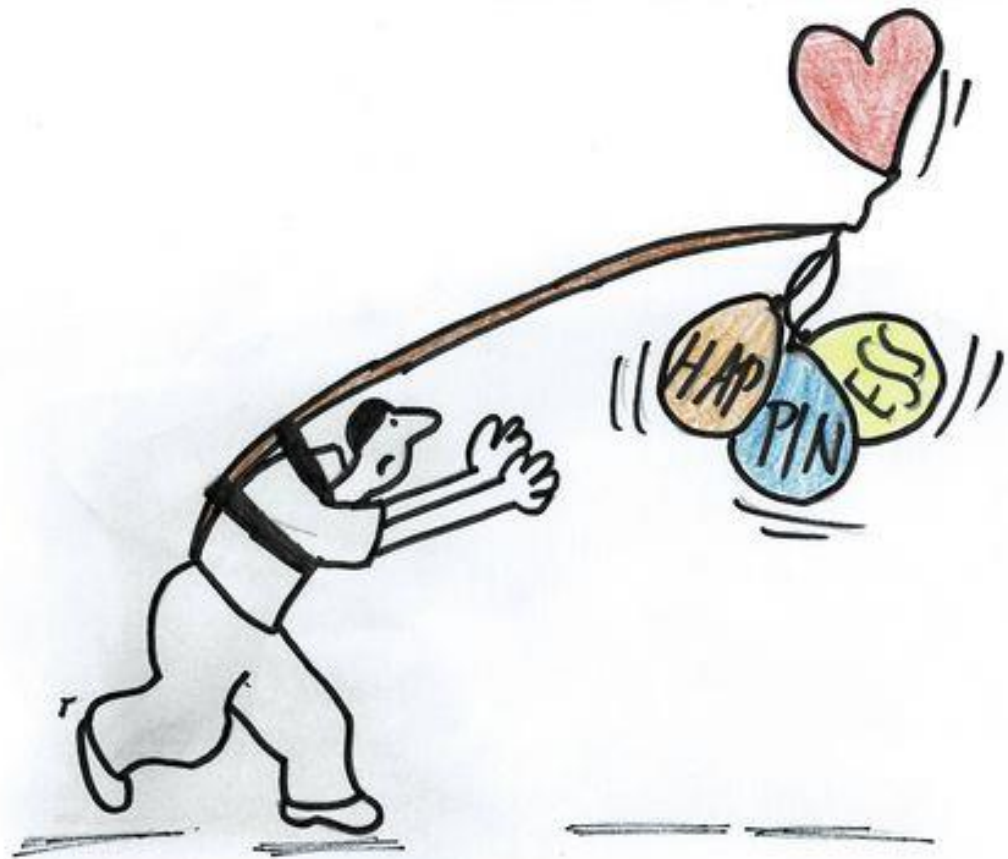

C

B

A

BACK

BACK